Dear Roscoe:

Thank you for your letter of 8 May on behalf of

[redacted]

I have checked and find that we have not yet received an application for employment from him. However, his background which you have noted in your letter indicates that we might be able to find a spot for him if he applies. Perhaps you would like to suggest to him that he contact our personnel chief, [redacted] at 2430 E Street, N.W., Washington 25, D. C. (telephone [redacted]) [redacted] will provide him with application forms and more specific information as to possibilities.

I will certainly be pleased to see you if you do find time to contact me while in Washington. Meanwhile, I appreciate the interest which prompted your bringing [redacted] to my attention.

Sincerely,

Signed - disf via ER
